SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that the Secretary-General, The Grand Priory in the British Realm of the Venerable Order of the Hospital of St.John of Jerusalem, London, has communicated to me that the Council desires to recommend my name for the honour and Dignity of "Associate Serving Brother" in the Venerable Order and I have been asked to let him know whether I would be prepared to accept the honour. I beg to inform you that, in anticipation of Government approval, I have written to Major-General P.S. Wilkinson that I shall be prepared to accept the honour.

Two letters on this subject in original are submitted herewith for perusal and kind return. I also enclose herewith a copy of my letter to Major-General Wilkinson accepting the proposed honour.

I shall be greatly obliged if you will kindly communicate to me the Government's approval of my action.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Director.
